THE FAIR'S GREAT DAY.

A Hundred and Sixty-three Thousand at the Exposition.

LAST SUNDAY WAS AN OPEN DAY.

The Our Government and State Building, as well as those of Great Britain, were tightly closed. An immense throng of people were in the grounds.

Chicago, May 29.—Fred Douglas, posing as Uncle Tom, was one of the features of a remarkable scene at the Woman's building at the fair today, when Ida B. Wells-Baer, a colored woman, was arrested.

A visit to the fair is not complete without a ride on the Inland Empire. The cars are comfortably fitted up and give an excellent opportunity for a view of the grounds while going at a moderate rate of speed.

Chicago, May 29.—One hundred and twenty thousand people were in the grounds of the fair today, the largest number yet.

The influence of the fair is not confined to the city, but is felt in the surrounding country. A few states commissions were left to all the fair, and a few more are expected.

Chicago, May 29.—The fair is not only a source of amusement, but it is also a source of instruction. A few states commissions were left to all the fair, and a few more are expected.

ON THE RAILROAD.

BRIEF MENTION OF A WEEK'S DOINGS ON THE RAIL.

Short Paragraphs That Will be Read by Base Ball People, No Game on the Home Grounds, Saturday.

—Billy Koch plays well behind the bat.
—Murphy throws a very deceptive ball.

—Miss Hank covers second bag like a professional.
—Shaffer plays in left with lots of vigor.

—Jesseville beat South Eastern 12 to 1 on Saturday.
—Freeland took Hazleton's scalp on Saturday in a well played game.

—Hazleton has a team called "Knumps" they are all kickers evidently.
—Our people should patronize the ball club.

—Ladies are admitted free to the Lehighton ball park.
—A small audience witnessed the game between the Lehighton and the R. & B. team, of Allentown, at Catawissa on Saturday.

—The contest was a stubborn one throughout, and it took eleven innings to decide the game. The score was: Catawissa 13, Lehighton 10.

—Last Saturday Lehighton was unable to go to Pottsville, so they played with the Weissport team. The score was 22 to 4.

—Manager McAniffe deserves the patronage of our people in his efforts to give a good article of ball.
—Scenes unplayable with the nerve of an old timer.

—Lehighton took Mauch Chunk's scalp in a well played game Tuesday morning, the score was 11 to 2. The first of the nine innings, Lehighton played the best game out of all the games played by the Lehighton.

—The afternoon of the same day the teams met on their way to Pottsville, and won the game 11 to 2. The attendance was medium. The boys put up a good article of ball for amateurs and the public should generally support them.

—FROM PARRVILLE.
Benjamin Steigewalt and wife were guests of friends at Hokenauqua on Tuesday.

—Harry Pettit, of Pottsville, was here on Tuesday, when it is said that he was quietly married to the estimable daughter of Reuben Steiner. The report being true we desire to add our warm congratulations to the numerous and hearty well wishes of their many young friends.

—Harry Heintz and Rosa Laurer are Parrville young men who are off on an extended trip.

—Messrs. H. D. Snyder, — Hall, E. J. Zonta, George and Mike Pettit and Wm. Anthony spent last Sunday at the Mahoning Valley with Bertolotto Post 484, G. A. R., of Lehighton.

—George Bowman has been seriously ill during the past week at times his life has been despaired of.

—The numerous friends of Jesse J. Pettit hope that she will soon be convalescent from the serious illness that at present confines her to the house.

—Miss Alvin Monte has been elected a delegate from the Reformed Sunday school here to the Reformed school convention of the East Penna. Synod, to be held at Broadheadsville sometime this month.

—Rev. Kershner and family on Tuesday attending a family and social at the Townsmeet church given by the members of the Young People's Society, of that congregation, for the benefit of the Reformed church here, of which Rev. Kershner is the popular pastor.

—Memorial Day was pleasantly observed by the local societies and was decorated by Bertolotto Post 484, of Lehighton. The route of parade was over the principal streets and to the cemetery where the graves of the dead heroes were decorated.

—The oration was very ably delivered by Rev. Kershner. He was followed by Rev. Luther, Broadheads and private residences were decorated.

—The Normal School Literary Society "gave up the ghost" last Saturday evening.

—Messrs. Arner and family of Morgantown, Kan., are at present visiting in the Valley. Mr. Arner was a former resident of this place, but moved to Kansas about fifteen years ago.

—Our Band was at Summit Hill on Decoration Day.

—Last Saturday Miss Alvina Hanning and William Merz Jr., were married.

—In My Own Words.
The citizens of Paradise, Monroe County, are greatly excited over the alleged burial of Steward Stearns before he was dead. He seemed to have expired suddenly of heart disease, a few months ago. Stearns' body was taken out of his grave to be reinterred on Friday and it was discovered that he had turned over in the coffin. The lid of the coffin was also broken open. Mrs. Stearns, it is claimed, believes her boy was buried alive.

—For Rent.
A pleasant corner three rooms and part of a double dwelling house containing six rooms, situated on the corner of Second and Coal streets. Apply to Henry Beckendorf.

—How Do You Stand?
Subscribers are requested to watch the date following the name on the labels of their papers. By referring to this they can tell at a glance how they stand on the books at this office. For instance:

Benjamin Harrison, June 23rd issues that Benjamin is paid up to date. By keeping the figures in advance of the present date subscribers will save both themselves and the publisher much trouble and annoyance.

—OLD SOLDIERS' ATTENTION.
The Pension Board of Carbon county will not be in attendance at their office in Mauch Chunk on the first two Wednesdays in June.

—Good, strong, best quality Ham-mocks at Gabel's, Lehighton.
